Q.1

'This motion is an extraordinary device introduced in the Parliament to draw attention of the House to a definite matter of urgent public importance. It needs the support of 50 members to be admitted. The discussion on motion should last for not less than two hours and thirty minutes.' Identify the motion mentioned above.

1 Calling Attention Motion

2 Adjournment Motion

3 No-Confidence Motion

4 Privilege Motion

Solution

Option (b) is correct

- Adjournment Motion is introduced in the Parliament to draw attention of the House to a definite matter of urgent public importance.
- It needs the support of 50 members to be admitted.
- As it interrupts the normal business of the House, it is regarded as an extraordinary device.
- It involves an element of censure against the government and hence Rajya Sabha is not permitted to make use of this device.
- The discussion on an adjournment motion should last for not less than two hours and thirty minutes.
- It is subject to the following restrictions:
 1. It should raise a matter which is definite, factual, urgent and of public importance;
 2. It should not cover more than one matter;
 3. It should be restricted to a specific matter of recent occurrence and should not be framed in general terms;
 4. It should not raise a question of privilege;
 5. It should not revive discussion on a matter that has been discussed in the same session;
 6. It should not deal with any matter that is under adjudication by court; and
 7. It should not raise any question that can be raised on a distinct motion.

Option (a) is incorrect

- Calling Attention Motion is introduced in the Parliament by a member to call the attention of a minister to a matter of urgent public importance, and to seek an authoritative statement on that matter.
- Like the zero hour, it is also an Indian innovation in the parliamentary procedure and has been in existence since 1954.
- However, unlike the zero hour, it is mentioned in the Rules of Procedure.

Option (c) is incorrect

- Article 75 of the Constitution says that the council of ministers shall be collectively responsible to the Lok Sabha.
- The Lok Sabha can remove the ministry from office by passing a no-confidence motion.
- The motion needs the support of 50 members to be admitted.

Option (d) is incorrect

- Privilege Motion is concerned with the breach of parliamentary privileges by a minister.
- It is moved by a member when he feels that a minister has committed a breach of privilege of the House or one or more of its members by withholding facts of a case or by giving wrong or distorted facts.
- Its purpose is to censure the concerned minister.

Thus, option (b) is the correct answer.

Q.2

Consider the following statements:

Assertion: The passing of no-confidence motion is a sufficient cause for the removal of council of ministers in India.

Reason: The parliamentary system in India is based on the principle of collective responsibility of Ministers to Parliament.

Which one of the following is correct in respect of the above statements?

Both Assertion and reason are individually true and Reason is the correct explanation of assertion.

Both Assertion and reason are individually true but Reason is not the correct explanation of assertion.

Assertion is true but reason is false

Assertion is false but reason is true

Solution

• Assertion is true: In the Indian parliamentary system, the council of ministers, including the Prime Minister, must have the confidence of the Lok Sabha (the lower house of Parliament).
o If a no-confidence motion is passed against the council of ministers, they must collectively resign, leading to their removal.
o This is explicitly laid out in Article 75(3) of the Indian Constitution, which states that the council of ministers is collectively responsible to the Lok Sabha.

• Reason is True: The parliamentary system in India operates on the principle of collective responsibility, as per Article 75(3) of the Constitution.
o This means that the entire council of ministers is responsible for the decisions and policies of the government.
o If the Lok Sabha expresses no confidence in the council of ministers, it indicates that the ministers no longer have the support of the majority, requiring their resignation.

• Relationship Between Assertion and Reason:
○ The reason correctly explains the assertion because the principle of collective responsibility ensures that the passing of a no-confidence motion results in the resignation of the entire council of ministers. Thus, the two statements are true and the reason directly explains the assertion.
Thus, option (a) is the correct answer.

Solution

The Appointments Committee of the Cabinet appoints several top posts within the Government of India. The committee is composed of the Prime Minister of India and the Minister of Home Affairs. The Establishment Officer's Division (EO Division) processes all proposals for senior appointments in the Government of India that require the approval of the Appointments Committee of the Cabinet under the Government of India Transactions of Business Rules, 1961. The committee makes appointments to posts of:

• Chief of Defence Staff

• Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) (this committee consists of the Prime Minister, the Chief Justice of India and the Leader of Opposition in the Lok Sabha or the Leader of the largest such faction)

• Chiefs of all Army, Naval and Air Force Commands

• Director, Central Bureau of Investigation (this committee consists of the Prime Minister, the Chief Justice of India, and the Leader of the Opposition in Lok Sabha)

• Solicitor General of India

- Governor of the Reserve Bank of India
 - Deputy Governor of the Reserve Bank of India
 - Chairperson and Members of the Railway Board
 - Chief Vigilance Officers and directors of the board in Public Sector Undertakings.
 - Secretariat posts of and above the rank of Joint secretary to the Government of India.
 - Chief of Securities and Exchange Board of India.

Consider the following with reference to the Question hour:

- 1. The Question hour is suspended only twice in the history of Independent India.
 - 2. The Question Hour is not scheduled on the day the government presents the Budget.
 - 3. Since the beginning of Parliament in 1952, Question hour has been held on all days of the session.
 - 4. A lottery system is used to select the questions to be answered during the Question Hour.
- Which of the above given statements is/ are correct?

- ☐ 1 and 3 only
- ☒ 2 and 4 only
- ☐ 3 and 1 only
- ☐ 4 and 3 only

Solution

- Statement 1 is incorrect: There have been instances when the Question Hour was suspended, such as during the 1962 India-China War, the 1971 India-Pakistan War, and more recently, during the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 to avoid prolonged sessions.
 - Statement 2 is correct: Question Hour is not scheduled either on the day the finance minister presents the Budget. Since the beginning of the current Lok Sabha, approximately 15,000 questions have been asked in the Lower House.
 - Statement 3 is incorrect: The process of asking and answering questions starts with identifying the days on which Question Hour will be held.
 - At the beginning of Parliament in 1952, Lok Sabha rules provided for Question Hour to be held every day. Rajya Sabha, on the other hand, had a provision for Question Hour for two days a week.
 - A few months later, this was changed to four days a week. Then from 1964, Question Hour was taking place in Rajya Sabha on every day of the session. Now, Question Hour in both Houses is held on all days of the session. But there are two days when an exception is made.
 - There is no Question Hour on the day the President addresses MPs from both Houses in the Central Hall. The President’s speech takes place at the beginning of a new Lok Sabha and on the first day of a new Parliament year.
 - Statement 4 is correct: Due to the high volume of questions submitted by MPs, a lottery system is used to select the questions to be answered during the Question Hour, ensuring a fair chance for all submissions.
- Thus, option (b) is the correct answer.

Choose the correct option from below:

- 1 One of the statements is correct
- 2 Two of the statements are correct
- 3 Three of the statements are correct
- 4 None of the statements are correct

Solution

- Statement 1 is correct. Parliamentary Forums play a crucial role in the democratic functioning of a country. They offer a platform for discussion and interaction on significant issues with relevant ministers.
 - Statement 2 is correct. The Deputy Chairman of Rajya Sabha, the Deputy Speaker of Lok Sabha, the concerned Ministers, and the Chairman of department-related Standing Committees are the exofficio Vice-Presidents of the respective forums.
 - Statement 3 is incorrect. The speaker of Lok Sabha is the ex-officio President of all the Forums except the Parliamentary Forum on Population and Public Health wherein the Chairman of Rajya Sabha is the ex-officio President and the Speaker is the ex-officio Co-President.

Consider the following statements with respect to the Governor of a State:

1. The Constitution mandates a five-year term of office for the Governor.

2. The Governor appoints the State Election Commissioner on the recommendation of the Election Commission of India.

3. The Governor, on the advice of the Council of Ministers, shall withhold the assent of the Private Member Bill passed by the State Legislature.

How many of the statements given above are correct?

- 1 Only one
- 2 Only two
- 3 All three
- 4 None

Solution

A governor holds office for a term of five years from the date on which he enters his office. However, this term of five years is subject to the pleasure of the President. Further, he can resign at any time by addressing a resignation letter to the President.

The Supreme Court held that the pleasure of the President is not justifiable. The governor has no security of tenure and no fixed term of office. The President may remove him at any time. Thus, the Constitution does not mandate a five-year term of office for the Governor. So, Statement 1 is not correct.

The governor appoints the state election commissioner and determines his conditions of service and tenure of office. However, the state election commissioner can be removed only in a like manner and on the like grounds as a judge of a high court. Thus, the Governor appoints the State Election Commissioner but not on the recommendation of the Election Commission of India. So, Statement 2 is not correct. Article 200 of the Constitution lays down that when a Bill passed by a State Legislature is presented to the Governor for their consent, they have four alternatives. The governor,

- May give his assent to the Bill;
- May withhold his assent to the Bill;
- May return the Bill (if it is not a Money Bill) for reconsideration by the State Legislature; or
- May reserve the Bill for the consideration of the President.

Supreme Court, in various cases, including the Shamsher Singh case (1974), held that the Governor does not exercise his discretionary powers while withholding assent or returning a Bill to the State Legislature. They are required to act as per the advice of the Council of Ministers.

The situation of ‘withholding assent’ may arise in case of a Private Members’ Bill (bill by any Member of State Legislature other than a Minister) passed by the State Legislature, which the council of ministers does not want to be enacted into law. In such an instance, they would advise the Governor to ‘withhold assent.’ So, Statement 3 is correct. Thus, option (a) is the correct answer.

Consider the following statements:

Statement-I: The Governor cannot dismiss an individual Minister without the advice of the Chief Minister of the state.

Statement- II: As per Article 164 of the constitution, the governor has no discretion to appoint an individual Minister.

Which one of the following is correct in respect of the above statements?

- 1 Both Statement- I and Statement- II are correct and Statement- II is the correct explanation for Statement- I.
- 2 Both Statement- I and Statement- II are correct but Statement- II is not the correct explanation for Statement- I.
- 3 Statement- I is correct but Statement- II is not correct.
- 4 Statement- I is not correct but Statement- II is correct.

Solution

- Statement 1 is correct: Under the Constitution, the Governor appoints and dismisses Ministers on the advice of the Chief Minister. This is a cornerstone of the parliamentary system in India, where the Chief Minister is the leader of the Council of Ministers, and the Governor acts based on their advice. Without the Chief Minister's recommendation, the Governor cannot dismiss a Minister.
- Statement 2 is correct: Article 164(1) states that the Ministers shall be appointed by the Governor on the advice of the Chief Minister. The Governor has no discretion to independently appoint a Minister once the Chief Minister is in place. They must act on the advice of the Chief Minister.
- Statement-II explains the principle behind Statement-I. The reason the Governor cannot dismiss a Minister without the Chief Minister’s advice (Statement-I) is that the Governor has no discretion in appointing Ministers either (Statement-II). Thus, option (a) is the correct answer.

Which of the following statements accurately describe(s) the Governor's role and responsibilities in the state government?

1. The Governor can appoint the Advocate General of the state.

2. The Governor can appoint members to the State Public Service Commission.

3. The Governor has the authority to override the decision of the State Legislative Assembly on a matter of public importance.

Choose the correct option from below:

- 1 1 and 2 only
- 2 2 and 3 only
- 3 1 and 3 only
- 4 1, 2 and 3

Solution

- Statement 1 is correct. The Advocate General of a state is the chief legal advisor to the state government. The Governor holds the authority to appoint this position. The Advocate General provides legal advice to the government, represents the state in legal matters, and defends the state's interests in courts.
- Statement 2 is correct. The State Public Service Commission (SPSC) is responsible for conducting examinations for civil service appointments and advising the state government on various matters related to state services. The Governor typically appoint members to this commission, though the process might involve recommendations from other entities as well. However, the Governor's role in this appointment process remains significant.

- Statement 3 is incorrect. In the Indian parliamentary system, the Governor's powers regarding the State Legislative Assembly are limited. The Governor generally does not have the authority to unilaterally override the decisions of the State Legislative Assembly, especially on matters of public importance. The Assembly operates as the primary legislative body of the state and exercises considerable autonomy within its legislative domain
Thus, option (a) is the correct answer.

Q.11

Consider the following with reference to the Deputy Chief Minister (Deputy CM).

1. The Article 164 of Constitution of India, provides for the Chief Minister and Deputy Chief Minister.

2. Deputy CM holds a position higher than the Chief of Defense Staff in order of precedence.

3. The official files meant for Chief Minister are routed through the Deputy Chief Minister.

How many of the statements given above is/are correct?

- 1 Only one
- 2 Only two
- 3 All three
- 4 None of these

Solution

- Statement 1 is incorrect: The position of Deputy Chief Minister in India is not explicitly mentioned or defined in the Constitution of India. Similar to the role of Deputy Prime Minister at the national level, the post of Deputy Chief Minister is a political appointment made at the discretion of the Chief Minister of a state.
○ The appointment is typically based on political considerations, such as coalition dynamics, party hierarchy, or the distribution of power within the state government. Neither Article 163 nor Article 164 (“Other provisions as to Ministers”), sub clause (1) of which says “the Chief Minister shall be appointed by the Governor and the other Ministers shall be appointed by the Governor on the advice of the Chief Minister”, mentions a Deputy Chief Minister.

- Statement 2 is correct: Deputy Chief Minister on 10, while Chief of Defence Staff on 12.

10	• Deputy Chairperson of the Rajya Sabha (Harivansh Narayan Singh) • Deputy chief ministers • Deputy Speaker of the Lok Sabha (vacant) • Members of the NITI Aayog • Union ministers of state
11	• Attorney General (R. Venkataramani) • Cabinet Secretary (Rajiv Gauba) • Principal Scientific Adviser (Ajay K. Sood) • Lieutenants governors (within their respective union territories)
12	• Chiefs of Staff holding the rank of full General or equivalent rank (Four-star rank officers in the armed forces) • Chief of Defence Staff (General Anil Chauhan) • Chief of the Army Staff (General Manoj Pande) • Chief of the Naval Staff (Admiral R. Hari Kumar) • Chief of the Air Staff (Air Chief Marshal Vivek Ram Chaudhari)

Statement 3 is incorrect: The official files that are meant for CM are not routed through the deputy CM, neither does the latter have access to such files or decisions taken by the CM. Rather, the files pertaining to the portfolios that the deputy CM gets, are routed to the CM, through him. The post of Deputy CM is understood as being equivalent in rank to that of Cabinet Minister (in the state). The Deputy CM enjoys the same pay and perks as a Cabinet Minister.
Thus, option (a) is the correct answer.

Consider the following statements regarding the Chief Minister:

1. A person must prove his/her majority in the State Legislative Assembly before she/he is appointed as the Chief Minister of that State.

Which of the above given statements is/are incorrect?

- 1 1 and 2 only
- 2 2 and 3 only
- 3 1, 2 and 3
- 4 None of the above

- Statement 1 is incorrect: The Constitution does not require that a person must prove his majority in the legislative assembly before he is appointed as the Chief Minister. The governor may first appoint him as the Chief Minister and then ask him to prove his majority in the legislative assembly within a reasonable period.
- Statement 2 is incorrect: The governor appoints only those persons as ministers who are recommended by the Chief Minister.
- Statement 3 is incorrect: The age criteria for becoming a CM is 25yrs or more.
 - Appointment: The Chief Minister is appointed by the governor.
 - Article 164 of the Constitution provides that there shall be a Council of Ministers with the Chief Minister at its head to aid and advise the governor.

- After general election to the State Legislative Assembly, the party or coalition group which secures majority in this House, elects its leader and communicates his name to the Governor. The Governor then formally appoints him as the Chief Minister and asks him to form his Council of Ministers.
- When no party gets a clear majority in the State Legislative Assembly, the Governor normally asks the leader of the single largest party to form the government.

- Theoretically, the Chief Minister holds office during the pleasure of the Governor. However, in actual practice the Chief Minister remains in office so long as he continues to be the leader of the majority in the State Legislative Assembly.
- The Governor can dismiss him in case he loses his majority support.
- The State Legislative Assembly can also remove him by passing a vote of no-confidence against him.

In what way does the Indian Parliament exercise control over the administration?

- 1 Through Consultative Committees of various ministries
- 2 Through Parliamentary Committees
- 3 By making the administrators send periodic reports
- 4 By compelling the executive to issue writs

Solution

The functions of the Parliament are varied and considerable in volume but the time at its disposal is limited. It cannot make a very detailed scrutiny of all legislative and other matters that come up before it. A good deal of its business has to be transacted in committees. Parliamentary Committees are of two kinds: Ad hoc committees and the Standing Committees. 1. Ad hoc Committees are appointed for a specific purpose and they cease to exist when they finish the task assigned to them and submit a report. 2. Apart from the Ad hoc Committees, each House of Parliament has Standing Committees like the Business Advisory Committee, the Committee on Petitions, the Committee of Privileges, and the Rules Committee, etc. Thus, option (b) is the correct answer.

The Constitution lays down the following qualifications for a person to be chosen a member of the state legislature:

- o He must be a citizen of India. Hence statement 1 is correct.
 - o He must make and subscribe to an oath or affirmation before the person authorised by the Election Commission for this purpose. In his oath or affirmation, he swears (i) To bear true faith and allegiance to the Constitution of India (ii) To uphold the sovereignty and integrity of India
 - o He must be not less than 30 years of age in the case of the legislative council and not less than 25 years of age in the case of the legislative assembly. Hence statement 2 is not correct.
 - o He must possess other qualifications prescribed by Parliament.
- Accordingly, the Parliament has laid down the following additional qualifications in the Representation of People Act (1951):
- o A person to be elected to the legislative council must be an elector for an assembly constituency in the concerned state and to be qualified for the governor's nomination, he must be a resident in the concerned state.
 - o A person to be elected to the legislative assembly must be an elector for an assembly constituency in the concerned state. Hence statement 3 is correct. Q.27

In which of the following committees, Speaker/Chairman of Lok Sabha/Rajya Sabha is not the ex-officio chairman?

- 1 Rules Committee
- 2 Business Advisory Committee
- 3 General Purposes Committee
- 4 Committee on Private Members' Bills and Resolutions

Solution

Standing Committees: Broadly, parliamentary committees are of two kinds—Standing Committees and Ad Hoc Committees. The former are permanent (constituted every year or periodically) and work on a continuous basis, while the latter are temporary and cease to exist on completion of the task assigned to them. The main objective of the standing committees is to secure more accountability of the Executive (i.e., the Council of Ministers) to the Parliament, particularly financial accountability.

- They also assist the Parliament in debating the budget more effectively. The 24 standing committees cover under their jurisdiction all the ministries /departments of the Central Government. Each standing committee consists of 31members (21 from Lok Sabha and 10 from Rajya Sabha). The members of the Lok Sabha are nominated by the Speaker from amongst its own members, just as the members of the Rajya Sabha are nominated by the chairman from amongst its members. A minister is not eligible to be nominated as a member of any of the standing committees. In case a member, after his nomination to any of the standing committees, is appointed a minister, he then ceases to be a member of the committee.

The term of office of each standing committee is one year from the date of its constitution. Out of the 24 standing committees, 8 work under the Rajya Sabha and 16 under the Lok Sabha. Business Advisory Committee: This committee regulates the programme and time table of the House. It allocates time for the transaction of legislative and other business brought before the House by the government. The Lok Sabha committee consists of 15 members including the Speaker as its chairman. In the Rajya Sabha has 11 members including the Chairman as its Ex-officio chairman. Hence, option(b) is correct.

- Rules Committee: This committee considers the matters of procedure and conduct of business in the House and recommends necessary amendments or additions to the rules of the House. The Lok Sabha committee consists of 15 members including the Speaker as its ex-officio chairman. In the Rajya Sabha, it consists of 16 members including the Chairman as its Ex-officio chairman. Hence, option (a) is correct.
- General Purposes Committee: This committee considers and advises on matters concerning affairs of the House, which do not fall within the jurisdiction of any other parliamentary committee. In each House, this committee consists of the presiding officer (Speaker/Chairman) as its Ex-officio chairman, Deputy Speaker (Deputy Chairman in the case of Rajya Sabha), members of panel of chairpersons (panel of vice-chairpersons in the case of Rajya Sabha), chairpersons of all the departmental standing committees of the House, leaders of recognised parties and groups in the House and such other members as nominated by the presiding officer. Hence, option (c) is correct.
- Committee on Private Members’ Bills and Resolutions: This committee classifies bills and allocates time for the discussion on bills and resolutions introduced by private members (other than ministers). This is a special committee of the Lok Sabha and consists of 15 members including the Deputy Speaker as its chairman.
- The Rajya Sabha does not have any such committee. The same function in the Rajya Sabha is performed by the Business Advisory Committee of that House. Hence, option (d) is not correct.
Thus, option (d) is the correct answer.

Q.28

Consider the following statements regarding the Chief Minister (CM):

- 1. He can recommend the dissolution of the legislative assembly to the governor at any time.
 - 2. He acts as chairman of the concerned zonal council by rotation
 - 3. He can ask a minister to resign or advise the governor to dismiss him in case of a difference of opinion.
 - 4. He is a member of the Governing Council of NITI Aayog
- Which of the statements given above are correct?

1 1 and 4 only

2 2 and 3 only

3 1, 3 and 4 only

4 1, 2, 3 and 4

Solution

In the scheme of the parliamentary system of government, provided by the Constitution, the governor is the nominal executive authority and the chief minister is the real executive authority. Article 163 provides for the office of Chief Minister as the head of the council of ministers to aid and advise the Governor.

- The Chief Minister also performs the following functions:
 - o He is the chairman of the State Planning Boar d.
 - o He acts as a vice-chairman of the concerned zonal council by rotation, holding office for a period of one year at a time. Hence, statement 2 is not correct.
 - o He is a member of the Inter-State Council and the Governing Council of NITI Aayog, both headed by the prime minister. Hence, statement 4 is correct.
- The Chief Minister enjoys the following powers as the leader of the house:
 - o He advises the governor with regard to the summoning and proroguing of the sessions of the state legislature.
 - o He can recommend the disAns.of the legislative assembly to the governor at any time. Hence, statement 1 is correct.
 - o He announces the government policies on the floor of the house.
- The Chief Minister enjoys the following powers as head of the state council of ministers:
 - o The governor appoints only those persons as ministers who are recommended by the Chief Minister.

Quorum is the minimum number of members required to be present in the House before it can transact any business. It is one-tenth of the total number of members in each House including the presiding officer. It means that there must be at least 55 members present in the Lok Sabha and 25 members present in the Rajya Sabha, if any business is to be conducted. If there is no quorum during a meeting of the House, it is the duty of the presiding officer either to adjourn the House or to suspend the meeting until there is a quorum. Thus, option (d) is the correct answer.

Consider the following statements regarding the Cabinet Committee on Investment and Growth:

1. It prescribes time limits for giving requisite approvals and clearances by the ministries concerned in identified sectors.
2. The head of the Committee is the Union Minister of commerce.
3. The Committee deals with issues relating to law and order in SEZ zones.
How many of the above statements are correct?

① Only one

② Only two

3 All three

4 None

Solution

- Statement 1 is correct as the Cabinet Committee on Investment and Growth prescribes time limits for giving requisite approvals and clearances by the ministries concerned in identified sectors.
- Statement 2 is incorrect because the head of the Committee is the Prime Minister, not the Union Minister of commerce.
- Statement 3 is incorrect because the Cabinet Committee on Investment and Growth does not deal with issues relating to law and order, it is the function of the Cabinet Committee on Security.

Therefore, option (a) is the correct answer.

Cabinet Committee on Investment and Growth:

Head: Prime Minister

Role:

✔ Infrastructural developments: Identify key projects required to be implemented on a time bound basis”, involving investments of Rs 1,000 crore or more, or any other critical projects, as may be specified by it, with regard to infrastructure and manufacturing.

✔ Coordination with Ministries: Prescribe time limits for giving requisite approvals and clearances by the ministries concerned in identified sectors.

Consider the following statements about the effects of a National Emergency on fundamental rights:

1. Article 19 is automatically suspended when a National Emergency is declared on the basis of war/external aggression.

2. Article 358 specifies that Article 19 can only be suspended during a National Emergency declared on the grounds of war or external aggression.

3. Proclamation of emergency can suspend right to move any court for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights.

How many of the above statements are correct?

① Only one

② Only two

3 All three

Solution

- Statement 1 This statement is correct. Article 19 is automatically suspended when a National Emergency is declared, No separate order for suspension is required (Article 358). However, 44th Constitutional Amendment made it clear that Article 19 will not be automatically suspended on the basis of armed rebellion.
 - Statement 2 This statement is correct. This change in Article 358 was made by 44th constitutional amendment, specifying that Article 19 can only be suspended during a National Emergency declared on the grounds of war or external aggression.
 - Statement 3 This statement is correct. The President can suspend the right to move any court for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights during a National Emergency under Article 359. But the suspension of enforcement is related only to those Fundamental Rights which are specifically mentioned in Presidential order.
- Thus, option (c) is the correct answer.

Consider the following pairs with reference to Parliamentary committees & its features:
Parliamentary committee : Description/Feature
1. Estimates committee :Do not have representation from Rajya Sabha.
2. Committee on public undertakings :Setup on the recommendations of Krishna Menon committee
3. General purpose committee : advises on matters that do not appropriately fall within the jurisdiction of any other parliamentary committee
4. Business Advisory committee : Regulates the program and timetable of the House
How many of the pairs given above are correctly matched?

- ☐ Only one
- ☐ Only two
- ☐ Only three
- ☒ All four

Solution

Parliamentary committees are classified into two types: Standing Committees and Ad Hoc Committees - Standing Committees are permanent bodies that are constituted every year or periodically, and they work on a continuous basis throughout the duration of their tenure. On the other hand, Ad Hoc Committees are temporary bodies formed for specific purposes or tasks, and they cease to exist upon the completion of the task assigned to them.

- Pair 1 is correct. The origin of the Estimates Committee can be traced back to the standing financial committee established in 1921.

☐ In the post-independence era, the first Estimates Committee was formed in 1950 based on the recommendations put forth by John Mathai.

☐ Presently, the committee comprises 30 members, all of whom are from the Lok Sabha, with no representation from the Rajya Sabha. The function of the committee is to examine the estimates included in the budget and suggest 'economies' in public expenditure.
- Pair 2 is correct: The Committee on Public Undertakings was established in 1964 based on the recommendations of the Krishna Menon Committee. In 1974, the membership of the committee was increased to 22, with 15 members from the Lok Sabha and 7 members from the Rajya Sabha. It examines the reports and accounts of public undertakings.

- Pair 3 is correct: The General Purposes Committee is tasked with considering and advising on matters concerning the affairs of the House that do not fall within the jurisdiction of any other parliamentary committee.
- In each House, this committee is chaired by the presiding officer (Speaker/Chairman) as its exofficio chairman, with the Deputy Speaker (Deputy Chairman in the case of the Rajya Sabha) serving as the deputy chairman.
- Pair 4 is correct: The Business Advisory Committee is responsible for regulating the program and timetable of the House. It allocates time for the transaction of legislative and other business brought before the House by the government. Thus, option (d) is the correct answer.
